General Information for Home Owners

1 LANDED

- a) We would like to inform you that if you wish to reconstruct, renovate or modify your house, please follow the prevailing guidelines with regard to plot size, plot width and building setback requirements. For bungalows, please note the additional requirement on building coverage. The prevailing guidelines for plot size, building coverage and building setback are as follows:

Housing Type	Plot Size (minimum)	Plot Width (minimum)	Building Coverage (maximum)	Building Setback (minimum)
				Front	Side / Rear
Terrace house (intermediate units)	150m <sup>2</sup>	6.0m	Not Applicable	Requisite road buffer	2.0m (if common boundary does not abut GCBA boundary), 3.0m (if common boundary abuts GCBA boundary)
Semi-detached house and corner terrace house	200m <sup>2</sup>	8.0m	Not Applicable
Back-to-back semi-detached house	200m <sup>2</sup>	10.0m	Not Applicable
Bungalows	400m <sup>2</sup>	10.0m	50%

Further details on prevailing guidelines for residential developments are available from the Handbook on "Development Control Parameters for Residential Developments" via this link: <https://www.ura.gov.sg/Corporate/Guidelines/Development-Control/Residential>.
- c) You are strongly advised to obtain planning approval first before commencing any building works. Owners are therefore strongly discouraged to carry out unauthorised extensions.
- d) To retain unauthorised extensions that can comply with the above guidelines, a civil penalty of up to 25 times the fee prescribed for an application for planning permission or $150,000, whichever is the lesser amount, is payable as stipulated in The Planning Act (Cap 232, 1998 Ed).
- e) For unauthorised works which cannot comply with the above guidelines and cannot be approved, the offender shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $200,000.
